Same mind here. We actually talked about that with Ryan. There is a lot more room to add functions specific to a site

John,

The subscriptions are what have passwords when subscribing via scribe.

Your database service is already providing the appropriate password for its subscription.

So if they are making it into your database you don't have to worry about any other passwords. Security of the data at that point is on you.

Hi Jeffrey,

Sorry, but we are not at liberty to distribute subscription information. Please contact Region 6 and Region 9 contacts for that information.

Region 6 is Eric Delgado

Region 9 is Randy Nattis

Thanks,
